A SCARCITY OF MONEY

Is the Only Unfavorable Feature Affecting General Trade.

THE DEMAND FROM THE INTERIOR

Continues to be Excessive, Thereby Forcing Up the Rates.

STEEL FAR MORE ACTIVE THAN IRON.

INPECIAL TELEPRAM TO THE DISPATCH.1 NEW YORK, November 1.- Special tele grams to Bradstreet's point to further moderate checks in the movement of general merchandise from first and second hands, but the bulk of interior jobbers' needs are thought to have been filled. Even now the volume of general trade is in excess of that one year ago, the total of October's bank clearings at 50 cities being the largest on record for one month. Chicago, Kansas City, St. Louis, Boston, Philadelphia and New York each report moderate declines in the distribution in some lines. The drouth in Louisiana has hurt the snear, and unfavorable weather in Nebraska, Iowa, Kansas and Missouri has had some effect upon the interior trade. The mild fluctuations in the Chicago hog products market did not prevail here, pork leaving off steady and lard only 71/2 points down. At Western centers hogs lower, but cattle are steady for better grades.

FOREIGN COMMERCE. Reduced calls for steam tonnage for Black Sea and Mediterranean trade, especially for iron ore as cabled from London, resulted in weakness in tonnage rates which shows itself here. Sail rates, too, are unsettled.

Out of 30 cities with close money markets or slow mercantile collections on October 25, additional case was reported to-day at New Orleans, and improving collections at Toledo only. Those which showed a ten-dency to tighter money to-day are San Francisco, Milwaukee, Cincinnati and Bos-ton. At Omaha, Kansas City, Chicago, Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York money was actually closer, with call loans a point higher at Baltimore and Philadelphia and up to 66012 per cent at New York, against 6 per cent at the close a week ago.

The drain on Chicago banks to the coundisbursements and is regarded as temporary Railroad share speculation is quiescent in spite of supposed pending deals. The mar-ket at the close of the week was unsettled by an advance in money rates and vigorous bear attacks on the trust securities, which are exceedingly weak on unfavorable disclosures regarding the Cotton Oil Trust, Bonds are active and generally strong. Foreign exchange is weak and declining. Demand sterling, $4 84%@4 85.

IRON AND STEEL.

Steel is relatively more active and has advanced more in price than iron, foundry having gained about $3 this year from the lowest point reached, and Bessemer pig about $5. Steel rails are up fully $5@6 per ton from prices reached earlier this year. None of the steel mills are fully supplied with raw material. There is an apparent lull in foundry pig iron, with best grades firm at $18@18 50, a gain of about 50c. Copper is firm at 11c for lake, and in more active demand. Higher rail rates for coal and iron tend to stiffen prices asked.

Prices of leading cereals have advanced, wheat being up 1@1%c, Indian corn 2@ 21/2c and oats 1/20/2c. Wheat receipts at primary markets are freer, but holders are firmer and ocean steam freights weaker. exports and repewed buying by London of Russian futures. Lighter interior and forward movement of corn, but better home and foreign demand stimulated prices with outs sympathized. What flour did not oats sympathized.

change mr sh in price. AGRICULTURAL EXPORTS.

The exports of wheat (and flour as wheat) this week (six days ending to-day) aggregate 1,593,352 bushels against 2,107,469 bushels last week and 1,342,814 bushels for the like week last year. Total exports July 1 to date, one-third of the current cereal year, are 34,234,455 bushels, against 40,240,-000 bushels in the like four months of 1888, 000 bushels in the like four months of 1888, and 57,608,000 bushels in 1887. Foreign shipments are declining sharply as they did one year ago at this time.

Ruw sugar shows signs of weakness again on pressure to sell and refined has gone off 14@14 cent enaily. European crop advices favor holders. Others do not. Coffee opfavor holders. tions have declined about 35@40 points on improved Brazilian crop reports. In aistributing channels the movement is light at irregular prices. Teas, for good qualities are quite steady in price. Infezior grades have sold off some. Movement of Louisiana rice is sluggish and prices are weak. Trade with dry goods jobbers at New York and Boston is quiet, but compares well with last year. Cotton goods are in active demand at agents hands for spring delivery and prices generally firm. Woolens are in light demand. Heavy weight goods have begun to move at a slight advance.

THE WGOL MARKET.

Interior wool markets are active and higher. At the seaboard manufacturers are showing a slightly renewed interest. Outlook for woolen goods is unchanged, Cotton is 1/2c lower at New York on equal-ization of spot prices with November Deliveries on October contracts at New York larger than expected.

Business failures reported to Bradstreet's number 251 in the United States this week against 190 last week and 220 this week last year. Canada had 35 this week against 26 last week. The total of failures in the United States since January 1 to date is 9.383 against 8,294 in 1888.

R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Money has been working closer during the past week, falling to 4 per cent last Saturday, but then rising steadily to 9 per cent, even more being asked in some cases. It does not appear that the change has any other cause than the demand from the interior, which continues later this year than usual, and on account of great business activity is unusually large. The foreign situation has not essentially changed, the Bank of England having gained $1,640,000 for the week, while the Bank of France lost $580,000. There is no serious evidence of an IMPORTANT MOVEMENT of securities either way, but the sale of the Minneapolis flour mill to an English syndicate for $6,250,000 is a sample of many in dustrial operations in progress, which in the aggregate bring a vast amount of foreign capital into the country. The volume of business continues very large, though signs of a reaction begin to appear at some of the larger centers of distribution. Thus the of 9% per cent in exchanges at New York last week was due to stock operations, and the clearings at Boston fell below last year's again, and at Boston, Philadelphia and Chicago together the increase was but 2.4 per cent, but at all other points together it was over 10 per cent.

Prices are stiffening, though the general level has advanced scarcely a quarter of 1 per cent in two weeks. In the speculative market there has been more activity, and, ex-cept in pork products and coffee, an advance. These changes call for more money in the movement of products. Liquidation in trust stocks continues, particularly in Cotton Oil, which has been heavily sold at a severe decline. BAILBOAD STOCKS

But railroad stocks have been very stubbornly held and average in price almost ex-netly as they did a week ago. Arrange-ments between the Chicago and Northwest-ern and the Union Pacific, and a rumered sale of the Chicago and Alton look toward consolidations of great systems, and in the end a projected railroad trust of gigantic proportions, but meanwhile popular disfavor may lead to interruptions by Con-gress or State Legislatures. For the pres-ent, at all events, the visible tendency toward consolidation encourages holding of securities, and the traffic in progress is large and profitable.

Speculation on breadstuffs has advanced wheat 1% and corn 2% cents on sales of 25,000,000 and 10,000,000 bushels respectively, but exports do not increase. Oil has advanced 3% cents, oats 3% and cotton 3%, notand profitable. withstanding reports continue larger than last year, both receipts and exports showing gains of 40,000 bales for the week. Coffee has declined & upon larger crop and estimates from Brazil.

The sugar market is only nominal, and prices of refined are not well maintained, but the trust stock has been more firmly

COOL WEATHER AND COAL. Coal has been stiffened by cooler weather, but still sells about 40 cents below circular prices. Iron and steel in atl forms are in great demand and firmly held, with a shade of advance in bar iron and nails, but the feeling is expressed that improvement has been too rapid to be maintained, and some reaction is deemed possible.

The accounts from other cities are unusually encouraging. Chicago reports money becoming tighter because of demands but no apprehensions regarding the immediate future. At Pittsburg window glass has been advanced 10 per cent and a rise in coal is expected; iron products firm. At other points trade is full and active for the season. At Detail the chinavals have the season. At Detroit the shipyards have good contracts and manufacturing works fully employed. In general the outlook continues good, though at some points the monetary situation is for the time not entirely satisfactory. The business failures during the last week number for the United States 229, and for Canada 38, a total of 261 failures, as compared with a total of 225 last week and 223 the week previous to the last. For the corresponding week last year the figures were 243 failures in the United States and 32 in the Dominion of Canada.

SUING THE LAKE ERIE.

Rivermen Fear the Sunken Barges Will

Interrupt Navigation. The coal operators who owned the barges sunk at the Beaver bridge, O'Neill & Co., Forsythe & Blackburn, W. C. & A. Jutte, have determined to bring suit for damages against the Pittsburg and Lake Erie Railroad Company; which owns the bridge at Beaver. Captain Jutte said yesterday that they would not be ready to bring their The drain on Chicago banks to the could try has increased and receipts are not showing like gains. At New York funds are in lars of the casualties. The coal shippers are sanguine that they can hold the railroad sanguine they can hold the railroad sanguine that they can hold the railroad sanguine that they can hold the rail actions until some of their captains returned company for the losses they have suffered, and they will let the railroad company, look to the Keystone Bridge Company to make itself whole in the matter. As already stated in THE DISPATCH, the Pittsburg and Lake Eric people will defend the suits by the plea that the matter of the construc-tion and removal of the work at the bridge was not in their control as all, but rested solely with the bridge company. Other coal losses were reported yesterday. It was rumored on the wharf that the Sam Miller had sunk a barge by running it against the bank at Marietta, and also that a burge has been sunk at Grandview. Neither of the reports could be substantiated. Captain George Lysle did not credit the re-port concerning the Sam Miller. Some of the river men fear that the sunken barges may prove serious obstructions to navigation. The river has fallen so low that the shipment of coal barges has ceased. The marks yesterday indicated 5½ feet in the harbor.

The Scotia, of the Cincinnati Packet Line, departed down the river yesterday, with a very heavy cargo. This was the first boat of that line to leave this port during the fall season. The Scotia is almost a new vessel, having been completely overhauled.

JUST TO ALL ME Charges Against Ministers Should

Not be Thoughtlessly

A Fair Hearing Should be Accorded Before Judgment is Given.

CIRCULATED WITHOUT EVIDENCE.

NEWSY NOTES OF CHURCH PROGRESS.

Unfortunately at times charges will be brought against ministers of the gospel. Some of these are true, some are false. It is necessary, however, that these accusations shall be heard and investigation be had into the merits of the case. If, however, there is to be a trial of a minister by the church authorities, why should he not have as fair a hearing as those who are brought before the bar of justice in our court rooms?

Is it not too often true that those who are thus to be tried have to face a body of prejudiced inquisitors? Notice the process of judicial inquiry under what is called the congregational polity, Baptists, Congregation alists Universalists and others. Some one starts a story that a minister has gone astray.

Too often it is taken up and rolled as a sweet morsel under many a tongue, till charges are preferred. The day comes for the hearing; but who shall publicly specify the wrong deeds? Those who did the talking. Who shall argue the case? Those who bring the defendant to trial. Who shall compose the jury to decide on the guilt or innocence of the accused? The same as brought the complaint. Who shall be the judge to decide what punishment shall be inflicted? The very selfsame ones. So here we have judge, jury, lawyer and accused all in one combination.

have judge, jury, lawyer and accused all in one combination.

What criminal in the land would be asked to submit to such a travesty on justice? Of course a council can be called, but there is no opportunity afforded for the one tried to object to any who have responded to the call, although the accused may be fully persuaded of their prejudices. We call to mind one case where the charges were not known by the accused till the "Council" met, and then one of their number when evidence was offered to show the falsity of the accusations, said in the presence of the Council, he "would not believe one word of it, no matter how well authenticated the evidence might be, not even if there were a stack of it."

Is not a minister entitled to a fair jury as well as Cronin suspects? Here is a disease, although we have not work of the council of the resemble for the said to the presence of the council the said of the council of the coun

Is not a minister entitled to a fair jury as well as Cronin suspects? Here is a disease, although we have no medicine at hand to prescribe for its healing. Surely a minister ought to be allowed to object to some jurors as well as others who are on trial; yea, he ought even to be allowed peremptory challenges. Ministers are but human. They meet temptations; they fall. Other ministers are just as human. They get their prejudices aroused so that they are not competent jurors. They may have studied the languages, but forget the old maxim: "Fiat justitia, ruat colum."

This is a serious matter, and should receive the earnest consideration of those whose province it is to direct the characters.

Dear Lord, my heart is wearv and sore-broken,
And sighs for rest.
Ohl give me of Thy love some tender token,
And make me blest.

No longer then shall hatred, rage or malice Cause me alarm;
My hand in Thine. I'll drain the bitter chalice,
And know no harm.

No News Received of the Effect of Mr. Porte's Mission to New Orleans.

Some time ago James H. Porte, Esq., went to New Orleans and made an effort to recover some of the money invested in the Louisiana State Lottery by Harry Flann, who is now doing time for embezzling money from the Marine National Bank. As money could only be refunded on order by the board of directors, nothing but the filing of the application could be effected at the time. Officers of the company agreed to present the petition to the board with a favorable recommendation. It was thought something might be done yesterday, but last evening Mr. Porte stated that he had not heard anything from New Orleans, and he talked as though he wasn't overly sanguine that anything would come of the mission.

There is an impression among some people familiar with business methods that Mr. Flana's investment will be regarded by the lottery company strictly in the line of business, and Mr. Porte's manner last evening did not indicate that he had built his hopes very high in the matter. No new cases of typhoid fever have appeared.

The wheat receipts at Minneapolis for the past month aggregate 8,250,000 bushels, the largest receipts during any month in the history of the city. The receipts for the month show an increase of 1,5%4.160 bushels over the corresponding month of 1888.

—Private dispatches from San Francisco re-port the loss in the Arctic Ocean of the whallog steamer Lucretia. No particulars have been received. The Lucretia was owned by Captain Lewis and others and was valued, with outlits, at $40,000, partially insured in London.

—The County Commissioners at Hartford, Conn., have decided not to grant liquor licenses to gracery stores or to places kept by women. They decided to make the license fee $400. Their decision will probably close a third of the places in Hartford where liquor has been sold.

—Since Commissioner Raum took hold of the Pension Bureau there has been a rush of appli-cations to the record and pension division of the War Office for records in support of pension claims. Yesterday Captain Ainsworth received from the Pension Bureau 1,407 calls, and from the Auditor's office 600.

—George A. Pillsbury, of the Pillsbury Flour-ing Mills, in Minneapolis, is in receipt of a dis-patch from his son, C. A. Pillsbury, in that city, which says he has just heard from New York that the deal for a purchase of the establish-ment by a syndicate, through Morton, Bliss & Co., is absolutely closed.

The Rev, Dr. Libertus Van Bokkelen was found dead in bed af his home in Buffalo yesterday morning. He was 74 years of age. He went to Buffalo from Baltimore about 1874, and took charge of Trinity Church. He zetired from his charge in 1885. Judge Van Bokkelen, of Seattle, W. T., is a brother of the deceased. The narrow loom weavers employed in Wood & Co.'s mill, Philadelphia, are out on a strike, and there are 255 looms, operated by 100 hands, idle. The weavers claim that they cannot make as much on heavy work now as formerly, and ask for 12 cents a cut increase in pay. The mill superintendent says that the advance will not be allowed.

The heavy snow storm in Colorado shows no signs of abating. All of the trains on the mountain roads are more or less delayed. Between two and three feet is reported from Colorado Springs and neighborhood, and telegraphic communication with many sections is suspended. Denver should be called the Venice of the Plaina, as the streets are one mass of slush and mud.

—The Oshkosh Mutual Insurance Company has decided to go out of business rather than submit to the ruling of State Insurance Commissioner Cheek, requiring it to comply with the State law which provides that 50 per cent of the cash receipts be set aside for reinsurance. J. Howard Jenkins, Vice President of the company, says that the company is solvent, and that reports to the contrary are malicious. and that reports to the contrary are malicious.

—The reports of destitution in North Dakots are greatly exaggerated. While there are some isolated communities in need of assistance, the statement that "over 100,000 people are in want" does the State Injustice. There is some suffering in Rodney and Kelso counties, but aside from these localities it is difficult to locate any one in actual want. The reports sent out from Minnespoils and St. Paul are in most instances highly colored. There is nothing in the situation to justify the reports that a famine exists in Dakots.

—The trial of Holzhay, the highwayman, at Bessemer, Mich., has been adjourned until Monday. Wher Holzhay was broughtinto cours his attorney made application for a continuance, and supported it by an affidavit signed by the defendant, but the application was denied. The defense also submitted an affidavit, signed by Attorney Gerphide, stating that from a conversation had with the prisoner and with several physicians of Wisconsin he believed the defendant insane. The case was then adjourned until Monday.

—Lebold & Fisher, Abliene, Kan., made an assignment Thursday to Attorney Mead and locked the Abliene Bank's doors against all comers. Since Monday's suspension a large number of local depositors have been settled with, and it was hoped that all could be satisfied. New England creditors coumenced legal proceedings, and the assignment was necessary. The remaining liabilities amount to $25,000, with assets which, being in Western lands, will come far from satisfying claims when sold at forced sale.

The University hazing case was resumed at Madison, Wis., yesterday in Judge Keyes' court. A. M. Long, a student, was called on to testify. He refused pointhiant, on advice of counsel, to be sworn or to testify, and pending a decision in the case court adjourned. It is understood several other witnesses subpœnaed will do the same, and the Judge has taken the case under advisement to consider whether they are liable for contempt of court. The faculty now have a cessation of the investigation and treatment of the case by the faculty.

At the Santa Elena mine, in the State of Guerrero, rich discoveries of copper ore have been made. The ore produces 90 per cent of copper, with a fair per cent of gold and silver. The Vadehista mines, in the same State, which have been examined by French engineers, are abundantly producing ores yielding $500 per ton. General Cervantes advises the Government that the difficulty with the Yaqui Indians will probably be settled peaceably.

Indians will probably be settled peaceably.

On the Mexican-bound train on the Vera Crus road Tuesday, a revoit occurred among the soldiers acting as the escort. From the meager details obtainable it is learned that four soldiers, headed by the corporal, made an attempt to stop the train for the purpose of deserting. The licutenant and first sergeant who tried to prevent them from escaping, had a desperate battle with them. One of the soldiers thrust his bayonet through the sesgeant's body, killing him instantly. The licutenant was disabled by a bullet in his shoulder. The other soldiers then came to the resone and succeeded in stopping the fight. Shortly afterward, while the train was running rapidly, the five men jumped from it, one falling on the track, and several cars passed over him, killing him instantly. The others were injured, but succeeded in escaping.
